Summary

I am an Android Developer and a graduate of ABV-Indian Institute of Information Technology and Management, Gwalior. I have strong expertise in Clean MVVM and MVC architectures, along with proficiency in programming languages such as C, C++, Java, Kotlin, and XML. I am well-versed in Object-Oriented Programming and core Android development concepts, with hands-on experience in Git and various modern Android technologies, including Firebase, Retrofit, Room Database, Coroutines, SQL, Hilt-Dagger, and Jetpack Compose. Passionate about continuous learning, I am eager to expand my skills and further enhance my proficiency in cutting-edge technologies.
